All of us have our own lives to live. Feelings change as time progresses. Events that seemed important during the younger days are now less meaningful.

Lasting friendships cannot be broken by time. Strong bonds between companions hold up even under the greatest emotional strain.

Years slip by without notice. Weeks become months, seasons become years, and decades become centuries. It is only when impatiently watched that time drags its feet.

Life is like a hockey game that is divided into 3 periods. People are born, they live, and they die. Specific life journeys for all persons are only known by the Creator.

Making the best of what time is left on this earth is the best way to survive. Life will continue to exist, no matter what time has to offer.

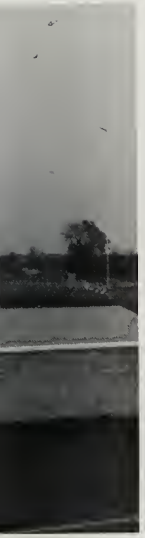
Beginning the third century in the recorded history of the United States is a big job. Remembering the bicentennial past is important, but more so, it is important to think about our roles in this new time and how time will remember us.

THE school shines in dawn's early morning light. Life has not yet entered its halls.

THE halls fill as the early busses arrive spilling students into the once lifeless building.

ALSO filled with students in the morning is the library where friends meet friends, and sports-minded students read the morning paper.

TAKING advantage of the quiet time before the first bell was Mr. Mertz, preparing his biology lecture for class.



WHEN the bell finally rings, the students take their seats and wait for the arrival of the teacher for another "Good Morning" welcome.

AS TIME PASSES ON

ONE-half of an hour was the time alloted for each student to eat lunch. Dave Curry enjoyed his lunch with the help of a friend.

A DAY CONTINUES

WHEN the final bell rings, hundreds of students race to their lockers and reach the buses just in time to catch a ride.

THOSE students not leaving at 3:05 stayed after school for athletic practices and play rehearsals.

. . . . time hurries on, and the leaves that are green turn to brown . . . .

Hello Hello Hello Hello.

Good-bye Good-bye Good-bye Good-bye.

—that's all there is

and the leaves that are green turn to brown.

LEAVES THAT ARE GREEN

AFTERNOON classes pass quickly for some, but for others who are constant clock watchers, the last three periods are an eternity.

ONCE more the halls are quiet. The building is set for the night with only the gentle murmur of the heating unit breaking the silence.

The editors and Publications staff proudly dedicate this 1977 issue of REFLECTION to Mr. Woodrow W. Inks. Mr. Inks has served the South Adams High School for 20 years. All totalled, he has been teaching 30 years. Mr. Inks is the senior class advisor and teaches Civics and Sociology to the seniors. He received his college education from Indiana Central University and received his Masters degree from Indiana University. Mr. Inks resides in Fort Wayne and owns an extensive collection of antiques. Receiving the yearbook dedication is an honor, but it is an even greater prize because the senior class almost unanimously named Mr. Inks.

HOMECOMING

NEWLY crowned King Phil Litwiller settles down in the library to finish his thematic paper after the excitement of Homecoming.

QUEEN Ann Minnich, with lollipop in hand, entertained the basketball crowd with her imitation of Telly Savalas.

Newly crowned King Phil Litwiller and Queen Ann Minnich presided over the 1976 Homecoming festivities. After their coronation, the band followed with a splendid halftime show featuring the senior auxiliary corps.

McAllister offered much relief to the large turn-out at the dance, seeking to escape the sub-freezing weather. All the calories from the "finger lickin' good" chicken which was bought at the FFA's chicken barbecue were burned up while the tensions of the nerve racking game supplied the energy. Garrett barely slipped by the gallant Starfires with a last second victory by the score of 40-36.

DUE TO THE DESTRUCTION OF 72 PICTURES, INCLUDING MOST OF THE HOMECOMING SHOTS, WE WERE UNABLE TO PROVIDE AN ADEQUATE COVERAGE OF HOMECOMING FESTIVITES.

THE STAFF

SHOWN are the 1976 Homecoming King and Queen candidates: (front) Ann Minnich, Mary Liechty, Sue Schwartz, Kim Wulliman, Marla Affolder, Sonnie Steiner, (Back) Lon Fox, Ken Sipe, Allen Caffee, Phil Litwiller, Derek Sprunger, and Randy Lehman.

ENJOYING the Homecoming Dance were seniors Wilbur Snyder, Chico Martinez, Kim Jones, Mary Liechty, Andrey Liechty, and many more.

THE seniors had their own bonfire as they cremated their Grand Prize winning Homecoming float.

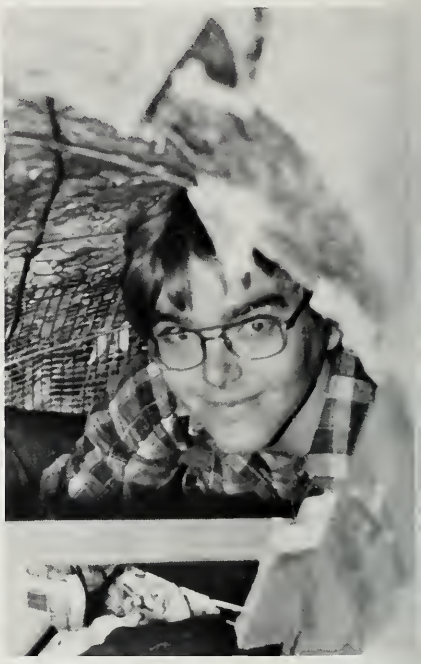
FLOAT COMPETITION

Scraped knuckles from stuffing Kleenex, sniffles from the cold night air, and drooping eyes from the late nights accompanied Homecoming week. Things started off with a bang as hammers hit the framework of the floats which were being constructed according to new regulations this year. The seniors' efforts were rewarded as their float won the first place honors. The freshman class placed second, and the juniors won third prize.

PICTURED is Rick Sprunger, showing the intricate structure of the inside of the senior shoe.

FINISHING the senior float were Ken Sipe, Sue Lehman, Wilbur Snyder, Kim Jones, Keith Neuenschwander, and Janelle Lehman.



STUDENT teacher Miss Hayes helped Sue Miller cover the chicken wire frame on the senior float with paper mache.

JUNIOR HIGH CONVOCATIONS AND AWARDS

ONE of the Junior High Convos was the annual spelling bee. Beth Agler was the winner this year.

RECEIVING the Home Ec award for outstanding achievement is Lori Smith. Mrs. Merkel presented the award to Lori.

AT the spring awards convo, Coach Flueckiger presented certificates to the track team.

"A

DANCING by the light of the silver chandelier were several couples.

ENTERTAINING at the dance was the group Leviticus from Fort Wayne.

THROUGHOUT the night, the punch and snack table proved to be a popular place.

CHAPERONING the Junior-Senior, the SA faculty enjoyed their meal.

"A Time For Us" was the theme of this year's Junior-Senior Reception. The evening began with pictures taken of the couples after they arrived. A delicious meal was served by several freshman girls. After dinner, the mystery movie TEN LITTLE INDIANS was shown in the auditorium. The couples then danced for two hours to the music of Leviticus. A light breakfast was served, the couples changed clothes, and then they went bowling. THANK*YOU JUNIORS!!!!

JANELLE Lehman, Bruce Hautau, Dan Bauman, Audrey Liechty, Brian Habegger, and Kim Jones.

FISHING for enough money to buy their tickets were Lon Fox and Rick Sprunger.

TIME FOR US"

ANXIOUSLY awaiting their turn on the dance floor, Mark Van Emon, Kim Wulliman, Julie Sauder, and Kelly Weikel watched the band.

JONI Van Emon, Tanya Lehman, LuAnn Gerig, & Alicia Lehman prepared for the big night.

TAPING the castle wall in place were Lori Hendricks and Jenny Liechty.

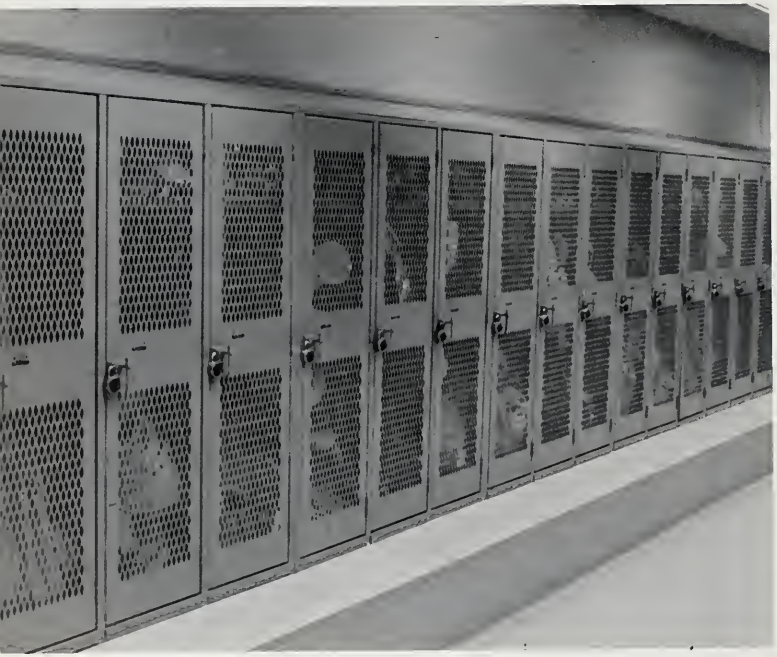
WITH the castle drawbridge lowered, the couples at the Junior-Senior crossed the bridge into the dining area.

After experiencing hundreds of lost library books, dumped or hidden tote trays, overcrowded totetray rooms, and numerous traffic jams, the administration decided to take some action. The solution: $13,000 for 678 orange, black and gold lockers.

Initial student reaction to the metal monsters was mixed. Some complained of the location, but others welcomed the thought of their coats and gym bags being right where they left them.

Absent minded schoolmates had one big problem. Several dents, and bruised fists and toes later, they finally remembered their combinations. How many times have friends approached the locker door shut before all necessary items were removed. Although burgular proof and sometimes even owner proof, the general concensus approved of them.

RACING to beat the between class rush to the new lockers were Lori Hendricks and Ann Minnich.



STORING football equipment is not the only job for these mudroom lockers. They also saw victories and defeats.

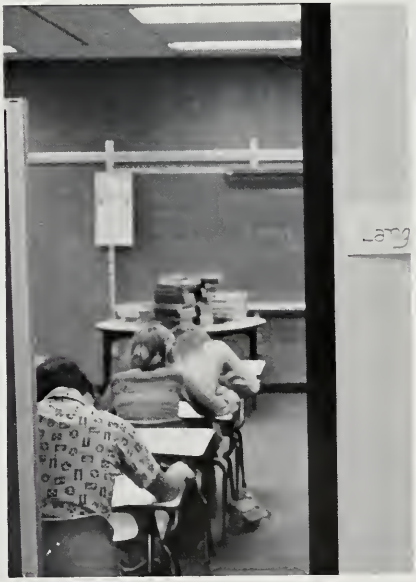
TURNING his combination for the fifth time in a row was Rick Hill. Master keys opened many lockers for forgetful students.

Locked Up, Walled in

Also new this year were 411 feet of walls, added to close the open concept. It took three men three weeks to install them, but their time and effort was greatly appreciated.

Finally a study hall was quiet enough for studying. English class was not a mixture of Spanish verbs and mathematics problems. Students really received a break because routine class lectures were broken up with video tapes, movies and filmstrips.

For those homesick students, some moveable dividers were kept. The walls turned out to be a real good investment except for thoses with claustrophobia. Classes were not disrupted by between class stragglers. While writing on the blackboards, students could finish without the board walking away, being needed somewhere else.



ENGLISH class was much quieter with the walls added. Brad Zimmerman, Pam Alberson, and Cindy Schwartz studied hard for a test.

TAKING a break between classes is Ann Minnich, resting peacefully after being swallowed by Kim Jones' locker.

RECEIVING final instructions before the march were the graduates.

STANDING until the rest of their class marched in was the Class of 1977.

REPLACING his mortarboard with an Allis Chalmers cap was Ben Hough.

SINGING "The Way We Were" at commencement was the girls' trio.

GRADUATION '77

ADDRESSING the graduates was Reverend Mark Batterbee.

AWAITING the invocation from senior Allen Caffee were the graduates.

PRESENTING honor cords and sashes to the honor students were Mr. Lehman and Mr. Inks.

DEREK Sprunger received his diploma from his father, Dr. Fred Sprunger.

Graduation '77 was held on May 22 in the South Adams gymnasium. The entire class of one hundred sixteen seniors received their diplomas from School Board President Gail Runyon. The baccalaureate remarks were delivered by Rev. Mark Batterbee who spoke on the theme "Sound Words." Kent Frank was the class speaker. He gave a humorous talk about the past in conjuction with the class motto. Principal Doyle Lehman then recognized the honor students.

TWO numbers were performed by the senior choir at commencement.

SENIOR Speaker Kent Frank was introduced by class president Ken Sipe.

ON the last day of school, the seniors practiced for graduation in caps and gowns.

AS the clock ticked closer to 2:00 p.m., the seniors lined up in the commons.

MARCHING to "Pomp and Circumstance" were Sue Hartman and Janita Zurcher.

Country

RACING toward the finish line from the west end of the field was the entire cross country team.

FOLLOWED closely by Lee Flueckiger, Mark Lehman strains to reach the finish line during the Adams Central meet.

ROUNDING the last bend and headed toward the finish line were the Stars, racing to victory against Jay County.

RUNNING with his team was the lightning fast Mr. Grogg, besting Mark Lehman by half of a second.

POSTING a respectable 7 and 10 season record were the cross country team members Lee Flueckiger, Gary Coblentz, Mark Lehman, Ted Beitler, Kent Frank, Randy Lehman, Kurt Frank and Coach Coach Grogg.

Spike It

The varsity volleyball team posted a 5-11 season record while the reserves fared 3-7 in the win-loss column. Coach Karas said the team was dedicated and played with a lot of spirit. The team worked together well and displayed fine sportsmanship.

The nucleus of the team centered around five seniors: Terri Agler, Diann Baker, Sue Hartman, Terri Rhoades, and Sonnie Steiner. The senior manager was Jane Schaadt. The varsity lettermen that will return next year include: Renee Keller, Kathy Nussbaum, and Kelly Egly.

Coach Karas presented Terri Agler with the team captain trophy and Terri Rhoades with the Most Valuable trophy at the fall Sports Banquet.

SPIKING the ball over the net during the Bellmont game was Terri Rhoades. Terri Agler and Kathy Nussbaum wait for a return.

EXHIBITING her power serve, Kathy Nussbaum scored another point in the losing battle against Bellmont.

(FRONT) Sonnie Steiner, Diann Baker, Terri Rhoades, Kelly Egly, (Back) Managers Jane Schaadt and Kathy Steiner, Renee Keller, Kathy Nussbaum, Sue Hartman, Terri Agler, and Coach Karas.

Basketball

MIKE, you just cannot let those other players get you down. I just follow my nose when in trouble.

FAKING the shoes off of his opponents, Kevin Lehman muscled toward the basket for another two pointer.

Posting an impressive seven win and fourteen loss record, the varsity Stars completed the regular season and went to the sectional semi-final game before losing to Bluffton. Senior Kevin Lehman was named to the first team N.E.I.A.C. all-conference team. He lead the team with 423 total points and 194 rebounds. Randy Lehman was second in scoring with 240 points, and Wayne Bunker was third with 137 points.

Coach Starks said, "I think we played as close to our potential as we could. We won more than people expected us to win. We were happy to improve last year's record."

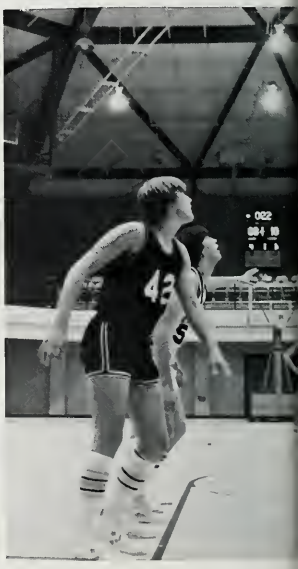
Reserve Basketball

JUNIOR varsity Stars include: Coach Grogg, Gino Fisher, Paul Smith, Mike Meyer, Dean De Armond, Doug Harris, Scott Moser, Randy Moser, Jim Hartman, Rex Lautzenheiser, and Jeff Doherty. They had a very good season with many exciting games.

The reserve basketball team coached by Mr. Grogg compiled a nine win and eleven loss record. The reserves were led in scoring by Jim Hartman with 143 points and Gino Fisher with 141 points. Doug Harris led the team in rebounds with 106. Mike Meyer and Dean De-Armond followed closely with 102 rebounds a piece. The reserves placed third in the South Adams Reserve Tourney with Bellmont, Jay County, Bluffton, and SA participating. Mr. Grogg thought that the season's outcome could have been improved, but he had to hold out players for possible varsity action.

SHOOTING a crucial technical foul free throw during the Bellmont game was sophomore Mike Meyer.

DOUG Harris put up a jump shot during the Jay County game. Gino Fisher and Jim Hartman raced for the rebound.



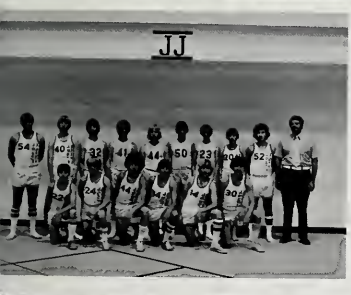
GRABBING the inside position from a Bluffton Tiger during the Reserve Tourney was Randy Moser.

RACING for the rebound in the Jay County match up were Jim Hartman, Doug Harris, and Mike Lehman.

JR. HIGH BASKETBALL

HOSTING a post season party for his ninth grade players was Coach Jerry Flueckiger. They enjoyed a fine meal.

MAKING another attempt at a two point basket was Rocky Farlow during a Jay County game.

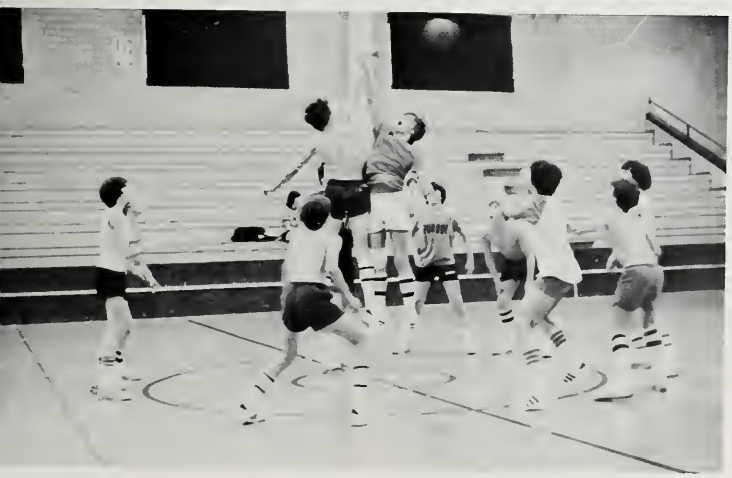


(FRONT) Curt Van Emon, Phil Lehman, Brian Evans, Rex Sprunger, Ron Dull, Doug Lehman, (back) Rick Hill, Kelly Caffee, Kevin Knoch, Rocky Farlow, John Courtney, Brian Grimm, Scott Habegger, Lee Flueckiger, Steve Moser, and Coach Jerry Flueckiger comprised the ninth grade basketball team.

(1st) Greg Rich, Kyle Velasco, Jay Baumgartner, John Fox, Fausto Bucheli, Mark Moore, Dick Laux (2nd) Brent Whitehurst, Steve Bauman, Brent Bixler, Vaughn Nussbaum, Tim Noll (3rd) Mr. Oswalt, Ross Reber, Kyle Yoder, and Leon Zurcher played on the eighth grade basketball team.

The freshman "A" team won 5 games and lost 10 games. Injuries the first half of the season affected the record. The team placed third in the Bellmont Tourney as they lost in a triple overtime to Adams Central and then defeated a good Southern Welles team in the consolation game.

The "B" team record was 5-5. The highlight was a late season game when they beat an unbeaten Jay Co. team.



JUMPING for the ball during a practice scrimage were Doug Lehman, and Brian Grimm, members of the freshmen team.

WRESTLING

JEFF Sprunger took his Jay County opponent for a pin.

This year's Star wrestling team won a match for the first time in two years. Much of the success can be attributed to hard work and dedication by the team and to the presence of first year coach Terry Larson. The team won three matches and lost only four. Three sure-win matches were cancelled by the snow.

Kent Werst became the first SA member to go to the semi-state level. Gary Coblentz, Cary Herman, Jeff Sprunger, and Jay Sprunger advanced to regional. Jay Sprunger won the sectional. Next year should be even a better year. The team loses Kent Werst and Steve Hupka to graduation.

WITH his hand raised in victory by the referee, Jeff Sprunger soundly defeated his Jay County opponent.

ALSO wrestling a Jay county mat man, George Cincotta readied himself for another period of battle.

SENIOR Kent Werst became the first SA wrestler to advance to the Semi-state level of competition.

SENIOR Co-captain Steve Hupka wrestled an excellent season for the Stars. The team will miss him next year.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

COMPOSING three-fourths of the girls team this year were seniors: Sherri Rhoades, Kathy Sheets, Terri Rhoades, Myra Dubach, Sue Hartman, Terri Agler, Cathy Brewster, Jane Schaadt, and Diann Baker. The absence of these nine seniors will open many varsity slots for next year.

TERRI Rhoades gets set for another two point jump shot.

JUNIOR Jenny Liechty out-jumped Norwell's Sherri Kumfer during the Sectional.

TERRI Agler, Sherri Rhoades, Kathy Sheets and Myra Dubach fight for a loose ball.

SCORING on another free throw was Kathy Sheets during the sectional.

The girls' basketball team ended its season on the same note as it did last year by advancing to the final game of the Sectional and by being defeated by Norwell.

The team was led by M.V.P. senior guard Terri Rhoades who averaged nearly 21 points per game and who was named to the NEIAC All-Conference first team. Other seniors on the team receiving honors were Myra Dubach, leading rebounder and voted most competitive; Sherri Rhoades, Kathy Sheets, and Jane Schaadt voted tri-captains; and Jane Schaadt named All-Conference Honorable Mention.

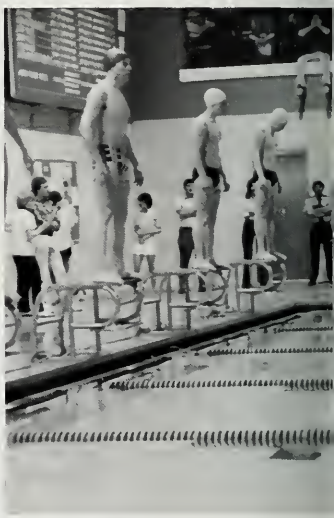
VARSITY Starfire Girls Basketball team members include: Coach Miller, Sherri Rhoades, Kathy Sheets, Terri Rhoades, Myra Dubach, Sue Hartman, Jenny Liechty, Terri Agler, Kelly Egly, Lois Doherty, Cathy Brewster, Jane Schaadt, Diann Baker, and Managers Teresa Fravel and Susan Moser.

RESERVES: Kelly Egly, Beth Hancock, Pam Alberson, Judy Flueckiger, Lois Doherty, Beth Sheets, Brenda Ellenberger, Sunny Bowen, Jane Rush, Brenda Lehman, Linda Rich, Vanessa Garlinger, Karla Smith, Pam Wurster, and Glenda Lehman gained valuable experience by playing with the reserves this year.

THE South Adams boys' swimming program was coached by Mr. Dorsch.

FINISHING second in the SA sectional in 100 meter breast stroke was Bruce Hautau.

COMPLETING her back stroke race was Alicia Lehman.



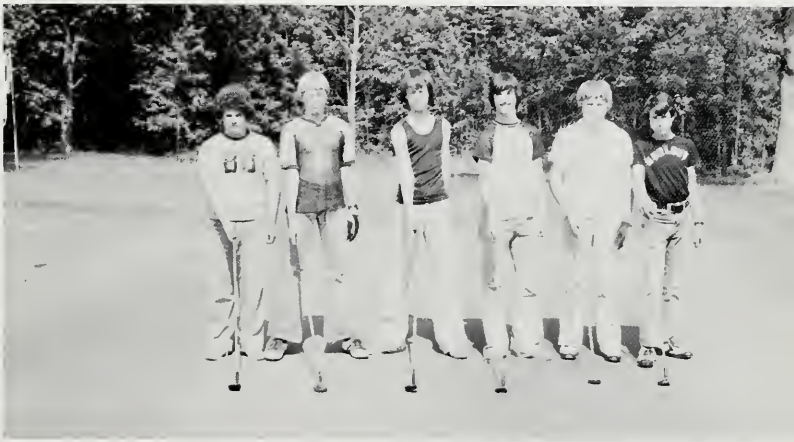
FRONT: D. Kruse, B. Habegger, B. Hautau, S. Lengerich, D. Baumgartner, Coach Dorsch, Top: M. Neuenschwander, M. Lehman, K. Nussbaum, F. Smith, R. Meyer, P. Zulauf, J. Umpleby, D. Kruse, T. Steiner.

THE only senior member of the golf team was Ryan Beitler. He played either third or fourth position for all the matches.

VARSITY golfers—John Schindler, Ryan Beitler, Ted Beitler, Richard Rhoades, and Bill Brenneman.

RESERVE golfers—Jeff Miller, Dave Neuenschwander, Tom Jones, Kevin Knoch, Mark Neuenschwander, and Fred Smith.

GOLF



Under rookie Coach John Starks, the varsity golf team had a very good season. The varsity roster included senior Ryan Beitler, who was voted captain of the team, junior Ted Beitler, and sophomores John Schindler, Bill Brenneman, and Richard Rhoades. The reserve golfers did not see much action, but they improved their scores. Reserves included Jeff Miller, Dave Neuenschwander, Tom Jones, Kevin Knoch, Mark Neuenschwander, and Fred Smith.

REFLECTION STAFF

PETE Mosser, Kent Frank, Sue Hartman, Ken Sipe, Keith Neuenschwander, Randy Lehman, Mrs. Neuenschwander, Terri Agler, Myra Dubach, Sonnie Steiner, Tanya Lehman, Audrey Liechty, Ann Minnich, Joni Van Emon, Mary Liechty, Kathy Moser, and Kim Jones are the yearbook staff.

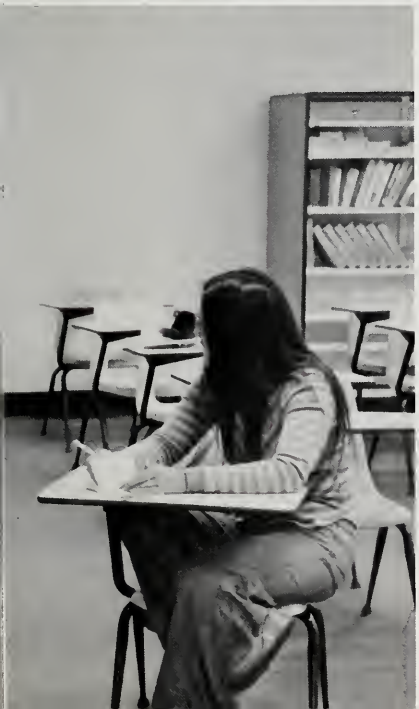
The 1977 annual was brought to the community by many hard working individuals. Co-editors for the yearbook were Ken Sipe and Sue Hartman. Ken designed most of the page lay-outs and Sue wrote most of the narration. Kent Frank arranged the picture taking with the help of many fine photographers. Others contributing their time were Kim Jones, Tanya Lehman, Audrey Liechty, Kathy Moser, and Ann Minnich. Of course, much credit and thanks go to Mrs. Neuenschwander, a super advisor.

KENT Frank was the chief yearbook photographer this year. Other photographers were Brian Habegger, Joe Graber, John Moser, Doug Schwartz, seniors; Steve Moser freshman.

KIM Jones was a valuable member of the yearbook staff this year. She composed many of the articles for the yearbook along with contributing regularly to the school newspaper.



TANYA Lehman and Kathy Moser were chosen to be the 1978 co-editors of REFLECTION. They each offered much valuable assistance in drawing lay-outs and writing the narration for this yearbook.

STAFF member Audrey Liechty demonstrated how the yearbook proofs are rushed by air mail to South Adams for needed corrections. Kathy Moser and Ann Minnich watched Audrey perform.

GET ON UP—

VARSITY cheerleaders posed are Deb Bixler, Deb Hoffer, Alicia Lehman, Sondra Herman, Renee Keller, and Lori Steiner.

CHEERING during a basketball time out, Alicia Lehman and Deb Bixler out shout the opponents.

DURING the team warm-ups and introduction of players, the varsity cheerleaders receive help from the senior guys.

RESERVE cheerleaders for this year were Pam Alberson, Robin Moore, and Kelly Egly.

AN added dimension to the games were senior bases Phil Litwiller, Allen Caffee, Mike Koehler, Lyle Liechty, Kent Werst, Dave Tumbleson, and Bill Liechty. They SUPPORTED the cheerleaders on many occasions.

FIGHT

CHEERING the Stars on to victory was Kent Frank, SA's newest member of the cheerleading squad.

Exciting the crowd and spiriting the team to victory were not the only jobs of this year's cheerleading squad. They also planned all the pep sessions, painted all the hall signs, and completed many odd jobs before game time. They attended a camp at Vincennes, where they learned yells, pom pon routines, and skits. Seniors Deb Bixler and Deb Hoffer were presented flowers at the last game.

At the football bonfire, the cheerleaders spirited the student body, and Mr. Lehman directed traffic with his bull horn.

NINTH Grade Cheerleaders: Debbie Yoder, Beth Liechty, Kim Mason, Karen Roop, Cheryl Lehman, and Renee Lingo.

CHEERING during an eighth grade football game were the eighth grade cheerleaders.

BILL Liechty, Lyle Liechty, Kent Werst, Dave Tumbleson, Derek Sprunger, Mike Koehler.

BUILDING spirit for an upcoming game, the ninth grade had a pep session.

PEP CLUB

Students from grades eight through twelve participated in the pep club this year. Mr. Anderson was the man in charge of the club. Representatives elected from each grade level helped him with attendance and the club's general organization. This year's pep club girls wore gold T-shirts, while the guys wore black shirts. The club cheered with the band and cheerleaders.

COMBINING forces, the pep band and pep club participate in a pep session.

CONGRATULATING Mr. Knoch and the band after their Bluffton Street Fair triumph was Governor Otis Bowen.

POISED for their picture was the entire auxiliary corp.

High and Proud

SUPER powerful sound astounded the home crowd during the Jay County halftime as the band played DO IT!

AS the Swiss Village flag was raised, the Marching Starfires played the STAR SPANGLED BANNER.

Although the marching band season was short, a lot of hard work was done behind the scenes to bring quality performances to the public. During the summer, 149 members of the band, under the helm of Mr. Knoch, and the auxiliary corps, directed by Mrs. Maloney, practiced twice per week for eight weeks. Summer highlights included: Second prize at North Webster's Mermaid Festival, Fifth place in the Winchester contest, Participation in many local parades, and a trip to Indiana Beach.

For the football pre-game and halftime shows, the band practiced during float periods, five times per week. The dream of a life time came true for the band as they won the Grand prize in the Bluffton Street Fair. In addition to football appearances, the band also played in the Berne Halloween Parade.

Assisting Mr. Knoch and Mrs. Maloney throughout the marching season were Brice Amstutz, drum major, Kevin Knoch, assistant drum major, Marla Affolder, Pom pon captain, Jenny Yoder, rifle captain, Colinda Mazelin, flag captain, and Carolyn Abbott, twirling captain.

The Music Boosters Club did a fine job in providing chaperones for the bus trips, in fitting and repairing band uniforms, and in planning and carrying out a very successful marching band banquet that many awards were given to many outstanding bandsmen.

Late in the season, the band enjoyed a trip to Bloomington, Indiana where they saw the IU marching band participate in a Band Day celebration. Mr. Knoch, in summing up the marching year said, "The season was a very good one. It was very enjoyable for everyone participating."

FORMING a gigantic S.A. on the football field were the Marching Starfires, 149 members strong.

MARCHING

TWIRLERS Carolyn Abbott, Tami Laux, Gerri Augsburger, and Renee Lingo performed during football and basketball halftimes.

This year's auxiliary corps added color to the marching band and provided much enjoyment for many Starfire fans. As well as entertaining the crowds here at home, the individual groups attended special camps during the summer. They received several awards for the most improvement and spirit. The pom pon squad went to camp at Albion, Michigan. The flags and rifles camped in Ohio.

POM PONS M. Adams, B. Brewster, M. Affolder, R. Brewster, T. Gerber, C. Amstutz, T. Amstutz, J. Manning, J. Bauman, J. Weaver, C. Schwartz, S. Sprunger, B. Vorhees, P. Adams, M. Lehman.

RIFLES Alison Minch, Vickie Simon, Jenny Yoder, Jill Sprunger, and Susan Schindler added military style to the color guard.

THE South Adams Pep Band was a vital part of the pep assemblies that were organized by the cheerleaders.

WITH megaphone in hand, Mr. Knoch directed the pep band at the old football field for the bonfire.

POPS Concert award winners included: John Moser (John Phillips Sousa), Sue Hartman (Orchestra Award), Audrey Liechty (Accompanist & Arion), and Brian Habegger (Choral Award).

The South Adams Pep Band under the direction of Mr. Gene Knoch provided excellent halftime entertainment for the fans at the home basketball games. On many occasions the pom pons, the flags, and the rifles also performed at half-time accompanied by the pep band. After the last home game, Mr. Knoch and his wife hosted a pizza party for the pep band members.

PEP Band members Steve Brown, Scott Lehman, Doug Sipe and others expressed varying emotions at the games.

MANY of the pep band members enjoyed the reserve game before their first performance of the night.

The South Adams High School Music Department presented the Broadway musical OKLAHOMA! on March 31 and April 1. The performances' quality was superb with the auditorium packed each night. The musical's director was Mrs. Peggy Maloney. The technical director was Mr. Tom Agler. Mr. Garrett Epp was the musical director, and Mr. Gene Knoch was chief set designer. Mrs. Nancy Hampson was in charge of the choreography, and Dr. Burkhalter managed the orchestra.

MINNESOTA Agler studies his shot during a pool game with Mr. Epp at the cast party.

DAN Bauman gives Nancy Hampson an "Oklahoma Hello" during the awards presentation.

MUSIC BOOSTERS

RECRUITING players for next season, Mr. Starks mans the basketball free throw stand.

RING Toss participants walked home with cartons of Coke from this stand.

CROWDING around the Duck Pond were many of SA's youngest duck hunters.

WATCHING the Bingo game was SA's famous Gary Habegger with friend.

THE race is on. First one to the Bingo table gets the last available seat.

CARNIVAL

COMING in from the Chili Supper, the crowd surveys the carnival area.

DECIDING which way to go next, Phil Litwiller and Sonnie Steiner stand in the gym.

The S.A. Music Boosters Carnival is a yearly event sponsored to help promote the various needs for the music program. To begin the evening was a hot chili supper followed by numerous activities which everyone seemed to enjoy and had fun taking part in. Highlights of the Carnival included: Bingo, Ring Toss, Fish Pond, Dart Throw, Trampoline Jump, General Store, and a Cake Walk.

POPS

MANY different displays of art work provided by all of the art classes at South Adams were viewed by the Pops Concert audience at intermission.

PROVIDING entertainment for the large crowd was the girls' trio. Raelene, Audrey, and Deb sang "I'm Glad to be a Girl" and "Love is Blue."

The gym was filled to capacity for this year's Pops Concert. Many seventh graders served as waiters and waitresses to keep the large crowd well fed as they enjoyed a variety of performing groups. Participating in the Pops were the orchestra, eighth and ninth grade bands and choirs, the symphonic band, Acapella and chamber choirs, a girls' trio, and a boys' quartet along with vocal solos, piano duets, and a mystery quartet that contained Mr. Epp, Mr. Knoch, Mrs. Maloney, and Mrs. Moser.

The presentation of awards to the seniors highlighted the evening. John Moser received the John Phillips Sousa band award. Sue Hartman received the orchestra award. Brian Habegger received the choral award, and Audrey Liechty received both the Frederick Chopin accompanist award and the Arion award.

The evening ended with the combined choirs and symphonic band singing and playing "You'll Never Walk Alone."

UNDER the direction of Mr. Epp with Kathy Sprunger and Jenny Yoder at the piano, the Acapella choir gave a fine Pops performance.

SINGING a medley of songs from OLIVER which included "Consider Yourself" and "Who Will Buy?" was the Acapella choir.

CONCERT

DIRECTED by Mr. Epp, the Freshman choir sang and then combined with the eighth grade choir to sing "Save the Country."

STEPPING back up on the podium after taking a bow was Mr. Knoch. The ninth grade band then played several more selections.

DELIGHTING the Pops Concert audience with two songs were Raelene Bixler, Deb Bixler, and Audrey Liechty, the girls' trio.

ATTENDING the Pops Concert was the largest audience on record. All the tables were filled along with most of the bleachers.

DIRECTED by Mr. Knoch, the ninth grade band played a selection of popular television theme songs. Included in the medley were "Happy Days", "Laverne & Shirley", and "Welcome Back Kotter."

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

THE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR BOYS

STUDYING VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE

BATTLING for a rebound during an FFA game were Mr. Morris, Stuart LeFever, and Mr. Oswalt.

DAVE Neuenschwander was one of the top scorers for the South Adams' Future Farmers of America.

MR. Branscum was faculty advisor for FFA.

MANY awards were presented to the FFA boys at their annual banquet.

This year's Future Farmers of America included Dawn Bedford, Larry Coblentz, Brian Lehman, Ted Liechty, Dave Neuenschwander, Bob Reef, Rod Reynolds, and Clay Snyder, seniors; Fred Affolder, Brian Beeler, Richard Dudgeon, Tom Dull, Randy Gaskill, Lyle Haines, Randy Harris, Micah Kuhn, Allen LeFever, Mark Neuenschwander, Roger Neuenschwander, Henry Schaadt, and Randy Smuts, juniors; Dean DeArmond, Brian Dubach, Stuart LeFever, Roy Liechty, Alan Paul, Richard Reef, and Van Sprunger, sophomores; Todd Affolder, Lynn Hawbaker, Steve Jones, Jeff Lehman, Jeff Miller, Scott Miller, Roger Patch, and Phil Vorhees, freshmen.

STUDENT COUNCIL

DANCING in the Christmas spirit were many students at South Adams. Student Council sponsored the dance after a home game.

The officers of Student Council are: president, Allen Caffee; vice-president, Lon Fox; Secretary-Treasurer, Sue Schwartz. The Council has sponsored two dances during the year. The dances were a Valentine's dance and a Christmas dance. The dance committee consisted of Lori Steiner, Tami Amstutz, Sondra Herman, Derek Sprunger, Sonny Bowen, Joni Van Emon, and Allen Caffee. There were three movies this year. The SA student body saw COMEDY'S GREATEST, ISLAND AT THE TOP OF THE WORLD, and THE APPLE DUMPLING GANG. There was also a Teenager of the Month Committee. This committee changed members every month. All the people in the Student Council devoted much of their time to help. All their assistance was appreciated very much by the South Adams student body, the Student Council officers, and the administration. Thanks to everyone.

SPOTTERS for the trampoline convo were Jane Rush, Matt Werst, Mindy Coblentz, and Ted Liechty.

WORLD Champion trampolinist Ron Smith performed death defying somersaults and back flips at a convo.

SUITING up to play Santa Clause at the Christmas Dance was Mr. Agler. He also visited the Head Start Classes.

POSING in the library was the entire South Adams Student Council headed by President Allen Caffee.

KENT Frank and Ted Beitler get their make-up from Miss Raudenbush.

KATHY Reinhard, Rhea Ann Sprunger, and Deb Bixler watch for an entrance off stage.

KIM, Kathy, Mary, and Lori performed at the awards convocation,

DRAMA CLUB

SPORTING greased back hair and an old sweater, Pete Mosser dressed for the fifties.

ACTING out a romantic scene were Kim Jones and Kent Frank.

KRAIG Wulliman, Pam Augsburger, Lori, and Ted performed in a Christmas play.

ANN Minnich, Ted Beitler, and Kraig Wulliman.

SHOWING surprised expressions were Ted Beitler and Lori Hendricks.

LORI Hendricks gave Kim Jones a beautiful bouquet of flowers.

KATHY Reinhard puts all her little mice to bed to wait for Santa's visit.

PAM Augsburger and Deb Bixler discussed a pressing problem.

The drama club frequently entertained the SA student body with humorous plays. Miss Raudenbush and Mrs. Myers were the directors of the club. Two plays at one time allowed the entire cast to participate every convo.

CADET TEACHERS

CADET Teachers: (Front) Pam Augsburger, Heidi McCrory, Marsha Shindler, Vickie Balsiger, Julie Sauder, Diann Baker, (Back) June Moser, Raelene Bixler, Pam Batterbee, Kim Wulliman, Natalie Miracle, Deb Hoffer, and Carol Herman.

Published bi-monthly, THE SOUTHERN STAR informed and entertained the student body. Sporting a new look under editor Terri Agler, the paper enjoyed a successful publication year. Other staffers include: Myra Dubach, Randy Lehman, Mary Liechty, Pete Mosser, Keith Neuenschwander, Sonnie Steiner, and Joni Van Emon. Watching over the staff was Mrs. Neuenschwander.

PETE Mosser, Kim Jones, Audrey Liechty, Kathy Moser, Tanya Lehman, and Joni Van Emon all contributed to the newspapers.

PERFORMING double duty every second period was Mrs. Neuenschwander. She was advisor for both newspaper and yearbook.

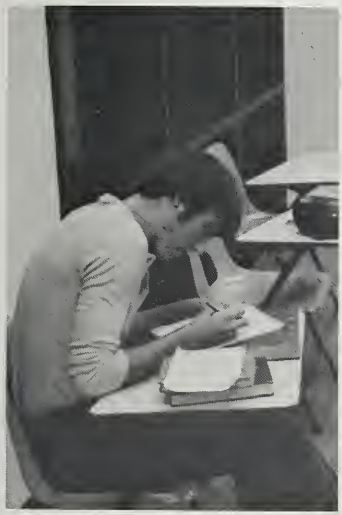
The SOUTHERN STAR

PICTURED in the newspaper room was the entire newspaper staff.

UNDER Mrs. Neuenschwander's watchful eye, Terri Agler, editor, compiled the papers.

RUNNING the Gestetner was the chief duty of staffer Myra Dubach.

PETE Mosser turns Kim Jones into an Easter bunny.



WORKING hard to meet the deadline was sports writer Randy Lehman.

MARY Liechty logged a lot of hours typing for the newspaper.

ACAD

Art and

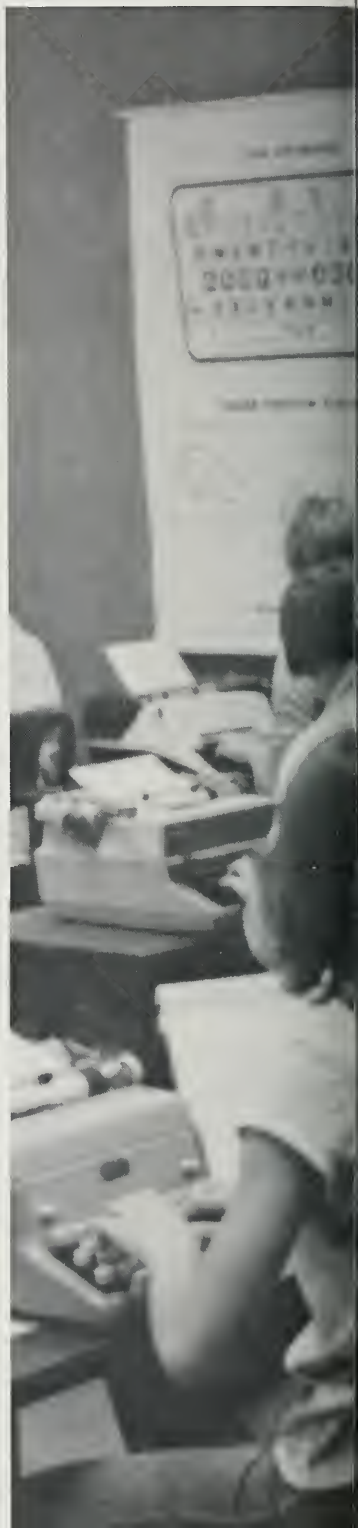
TEARING paper into little pieces for an art project were several seventh graders under the direction of Miss Stauffer.

DISCUSSING their next art project were Steve Bauman and other eighth grade art students.

Because art was relaxing and a change from the old book routine, many students decided to expel their creativity this year. Classes were more crowded this year than in the past, but Mrs. Johnson was thrilled to see the big interest in the art field.

Projects that benefited the school were the fire exit signs which someday may save lives, and beautifully constructed and painted scenery for the musical production of OKLAHOMA! held in March.

POSTED on the art room wall were many paintings and other drawings done by outstanding SA artists.



IN typing class, all the sophomores supposedly learned how to type. The wall chart helped lost students find the letters.

Business

TAKING a breather after a hard timed writing was a class of sophomores taught by Mrs. Weimer.

SHOWN teaching during his first period advanced business class was Mr. Miller. He also managed the cafeteria.

"Mrs. Weimer, my packet didn't check out" or "Mrs. Rhoades, I typed a whole letter without having my fingers on the right home keys" was just some of the business department's jargon this year.

Business courses were taught by Mr. Miller, Mrs. Rhoades, and Mrs. Weimer. Courses ranged from typing for beginners to Accounting II for future Certified Public Accountants. The typing classes this year had a taste of blindness. All the typewriters had capped keys.

CAFETERIA & ENGLISH

SNACK Bar cooks Henrietta Nussbaum and Joan Bixler get set for the noon hour rush for the pizza.

BEFORE a wrestling match, junior Jay Sprunger enjoyed a meal prepared in the cafeteria.

The cafeteria staff, under chief cook Dorcas Moser, started from scratch to make every meal. 120 pounds of 100% all beef hamburger and five cases of french fries were used to feed hundreds of hungry students and faculty in one sitting. Pizza was the number one meal with 519 served. In addition to the regular meal, the snack bar was a popular lunch time place. Chef salads, 25-30 per day, were consumed along with chocolate and vanilla shakes. Henrietta Nussbaum said the seniors liked pudding.

The English department which was headed by Mr. Jerry Flueckiger provided a varied curriculum for South Adams students. The seniors wrote thematic units and digested plenty of grammar. The juniors completed their first term paper; the underclassmen were introduced to plays by William Shakespeare.

MANY teachers cherished their private dining area so that they could avoid their students long enough to digest the food.

KEEPING her grade book up to date as she watched her study hall was Mrs. Raudenbush.

SOPHOMORES Robin Moore, Greta Eicher, and others in Mrs. Minch's English class read their book report books.

PHIL Sprunger, Rick Hill, and Curt Van Emon look up vocabulary word definitions for their test.

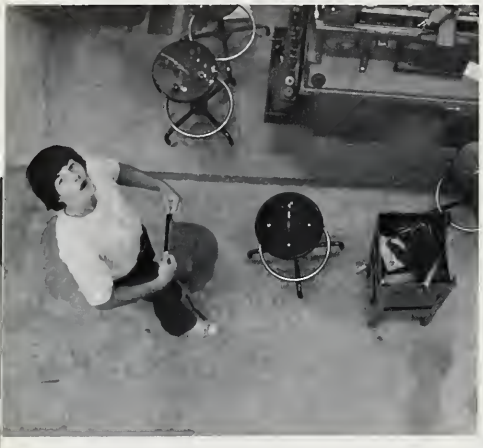
LANGUAGE Arts provided a wide variety of curriculum. Miss Andrews and Teresa Fravel demonstrate the latest dance steps.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The Industrial Arts students became familiar with industry by operating machinery and developing work skills necessary for success within the industrial world.

Industrial Arts classes offered machine skills, drafting, and building trades. In these classes, Mr. Oswalt and Mr. Mosser help students prepare for future jobs. Eighth graders formed companies and sold products.

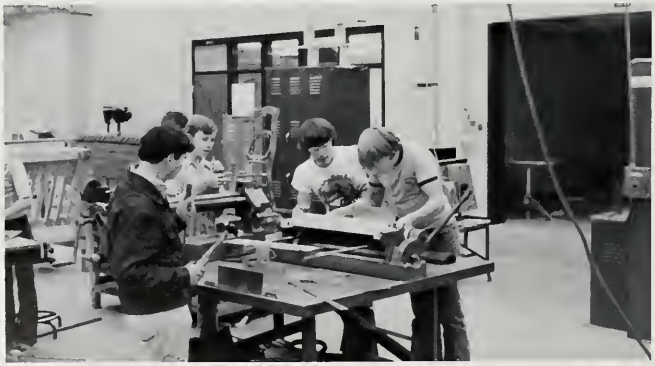
AN expert in industrial arts, Kent Frank shapes a piece of wood.



TAKING a break from the tremendous task of untying his apron was Scott Moser.

JEFF Sprunger, Roger Patch, Brian McCollum, and Phil Moser work in the shop.

HELPING Roger Cover and Micah Kuhn was Mr. Oswalt.

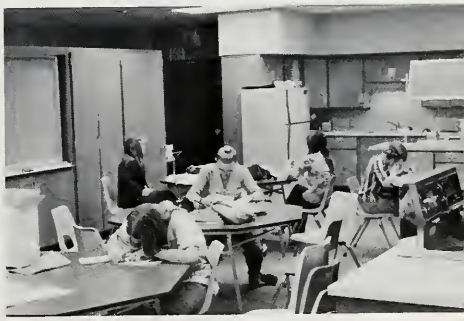


FINISHING a delicious meal was the senior Home Economics class.

HOME ECONOMICS

ENJOYING a Home Economics meal were Nancy Nussbaum, Diana Ford and Cheri Jones.

Cooking seemed to be the students' and the teachers' favorite class period in Home Ec. Classes cooked pizzas, lunches, and breads on a budget of $25 per week. Mrs. Yake wished that all of the classes were semester or 9 week classes so students could choose from a variety of desired subjects. Mrs. Merkle said that people who are not as smart in math or science shine in Home Economics.



CLASSES in Home Economics must do a lot of research before starting to cook.

Shhh!

A library, as defined in the dictionary, is a building housing a collection of books used for QUIET research or pleasure reading. The SA library may resemble the above definition but was used for many other events during the past year. The newspaper staff held an Easter egg hunt in the library. Early morning arrivers and lunch hour escapees also used this quiet place appropriate for friendly chats.

CAREFULLY scanning the library for gum chewers, noisy talkers, and other assorted offenders was Mrs. Linder, library watchdog.

USING the library for a demonstration, Mr. Sheets launched his Polish Rocket for his science class.

Quiet Please!

DISCUSSING pertinent library matters were Kathy Sprunger and Tami Amstutz while Mrs. Linder and Rose Teeple reshelve books.

SEARCHING for a book for a report are Lee Flueckiger and Rick Hill, while Tim Grover looks for a newspaper to read.

HELPING Pam Alberson, Lois Doherty, and Sue Yoder with an English assignment was Mrs. Minch.

FRIENDS congregate in the library before school begins to meet and discuss the latest gossip.

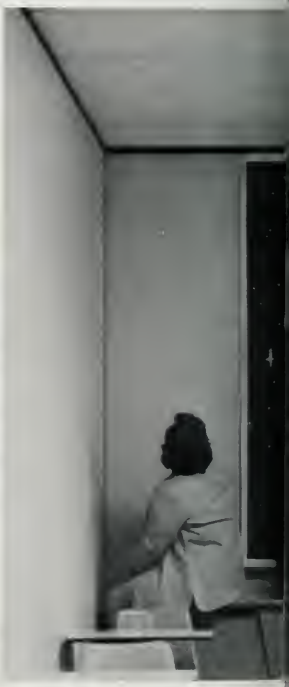
Language

SPANISH students under the direction of Miss Andrews learned their language.

Spanish, French, and Latin were the foreign language choices for SA students this year. Miss Andrews, Mrs. Neuenschwander, and Mrs. Myers taught those subjects. Highlighting the language program was a summer trip to France by Mrs. Neuenschwander and some of her students.

Math was taught by Mr. Huser, Mr. Leistner, Mr. Sprunger, and Mr. Grogg. Senior math students especially enjoyed learning to program Monroe, the almost human calculator.

STRESSING a very important Latin fact was Mrs. Myers.



KENT Frank and Ken Sipe tape Mrs. Neuenschwander's Eiffel Tower to the wall.

and Mathematics

FEVERISHLY working on her math test was Jenny Liechty.

JILAINE Lehman and Kristi Moser discuss a difficult math problem.

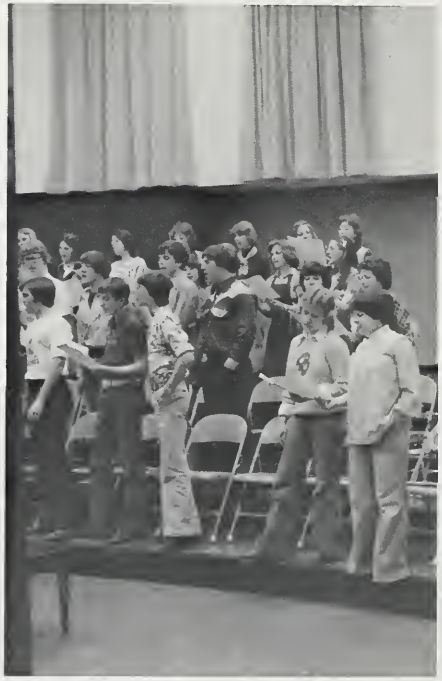
EXPLAINING a problem to his eighth grade math class was Mr. Sprunger.

Music

PRACTICING for an upcoming concert was the A Capella choir. They received a superior rating at contest.

OKLAHOMA was a huge success partly due to the pit orchestra. Mr. Epp directed the orchestra of the musical.

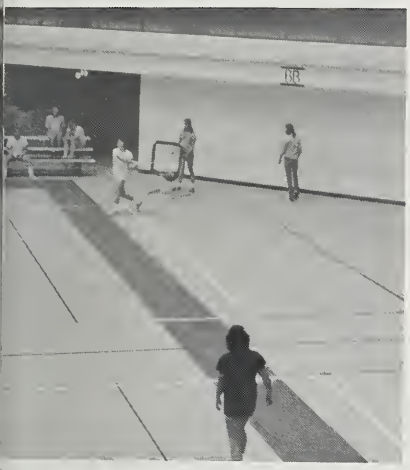
BAND president John Moser entertained the winter concert audience with trumpet solos. Scott Lehman and Ron Moser accompanied him.



SACKET Ball is becoming a great tradition in the South Adams gym classes. Kevin Knoch knocks another base hit.

FRESHMEN gym classes enjoyed the new game of Pillow Polo. Many goals were scored by the teams along with receiving bruised legs.

and Phys. Ed.



GETTING ready for another exciting gym class basketball game were Todd Steiner, Mike Meyer and the rest of the team.

FRESH out of the pool, Miss Norma Jones used her trusty hair dryer before going to her next class.

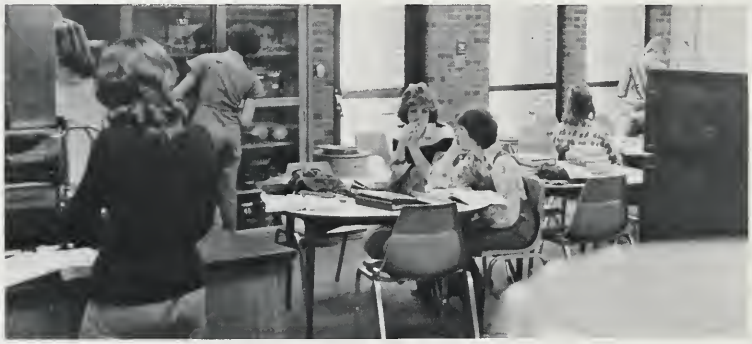
science

Instructed by Mr. Fry, Mr. Sheets, Mr. Mertz, Mr. Leistner, and Mr. Huser, the science curriculum offered a wide range of subjects for students. Courses included Physics, Chemistry, Biology, and IPS. The science department, headed by Mr. Sheets, introduced new text books to the classes. Mrs. Gould aided with labs.

MATT Lehman, Teryl Masterson, Kraig Wulliman, and others perform lab experiments.

SARA Sprunger, Dave Baumgartner, and Stan Lengerich do chemistry labs with flames.

ADVANCED Biology students research their next topics of study in the lab area.



VICKIE Balsiger stirs a mixture for a lab experiment in advanced biology.

EIGHTH grade science students complete their lab experiments.

PHYSICS students Kathy Sheets and Brenda Liechty record step-climbing times.

CELEBRATING the election results on the Republican side was second period Civics.

FIFTH period Civics finds a time to talk between Mr. Inks' lectures.

DEFENSE attorney Wilbur Snyder examines Lon Fox's shoe during a Civics trial.

GETTING a head start on their homework were Mr. Bridge's students.

With Mr. Inks in charge of the social studies department, students got their fill of movies, note taking, lectures, tests, and senior Jeopardy day. On the history staff, Mr. Inks taught seniors, Mr. Bridge and Mr. Agler taught juniors, and Mr. Lehman, Mr. Fry, and Mr. Starks taught the underclassmen.

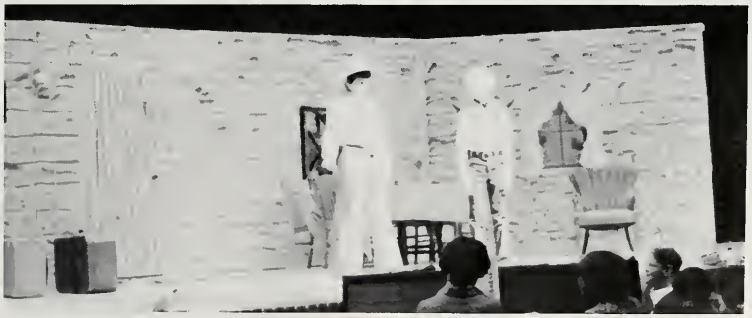
Geneva Highlights

PICTURED was the entire cast of the sixth grade opereta "Howdy Cowboy"

DIRECTED by Mrs. Maloney, the sixth grade opereta gave two performances to the public.



TAKING time from their tennis lessons in gym were Sheri Godsey and Marsha Whitehurst.

HEALTH and Science seemed to be the favorite subject of these students at Geneva.

"HOWDY Cowboy" used two completely different casts at each performance.

AMISHVILLE

USA

"Where the Plain People Work and Live"

After you turn off U.S. Highway 27 and wend your way past the picturesque you will find yourself at beautiful Amishville, U.S.A. As part of Amishville, U.S.A. you will find the "Essen PLATZ" (eating place) just beyond the towering Amish windmill.

When approaching the entrance to the "Essen Platz", pause just a moment to enjoy the beautiful panoramic view of Amish countryside, with the two small lakes, wooded hills, and clean fresh country air. Here you will truly enjoy the beauty of the Creator's art.

Upon entering the "Essen Platz" one immediatley senses the warmth and friendly atmosphere. The rustic decor, Amish lanterns, and the world's largest authentic Steel Horse.

The waitresses will assist you in making your dinner a pleasant one. Relax and enjoy the soft music as you enjoy "Another World" of just plain country cooking.

REMEMBER WHEN?

REMEMBER when a group of seniors rode to school in a horse and buggy in the style used by their ancestors?

Time it was,

And what a time it was,

It was . . . .

A time of innocence,

A time of confidences.

Long ago . . . . it must be . . .

I have a photograph.

Preserve your memories;

They're all that's left you.

REMEMBER when it snowed so hard that school was not opened for a week, and the fuel shortage reduced the building temperatures?

REMEMBER when that final moment came during Graduation when, with diploma in hand, the graduates moved their tassles to the right side?

REMEMBER when frisbees filled the hallways to announce the approaching end of the school year?

REMEMBER when gymnasts Joni Van-Emon and Julie Sauder performed excellently at the Regional and then Joni advanced to the State?

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The 625 copies of the 1977 issue of South Adams High School's REFLECTION were printed by Inter-Collegiate Press in Shawnee Mission, Kansas. The Sales representative was Mr. Steve Hamer.

The four color cover picture was taken by Randy Grandlienard. The 9x12 pages were printed on 80# Enamel paper stock. REFLECTION featured Bodoni Bold headline style and two sized Romatype. The body copy was 10 point size, and the captions were 8 point.

Special thanks go to the principals, teachers, librarians, custodians, Kent Frank and his photographers, and our advisor for REFLECTION 1977, Mrs. Ruth Neuenschwander. She gave up many hours of free time to insure the success of the yearbook.
